Three City School Teachers Named

New WHS Principal Lined Up

Three of the five current vacancies in the Washington C. H. school teaching corps were filled and a new principal for the high school was "tentatively appointed" at a special meeting of the school board Monday night.

Three candidates for the high school principalship were interviewed by the board at the meeting that, ran well beyond midnight. Of the three, one was settled on by the board as, in the words of one member, "outstanding." However, his name was withheld by the board "until he gets his release from his present position."

While the board declined to go into details that would give any clue to his identity, it was said that "the board feels certain he will be released from his present contract in the very near future."

The new principal will take the place of Arthur Wohlers, who resigned unexpectedly about a month ago to continue his own education at Ohio State while filling a research position on the university staff.

Three Teachers Named

The board named Miss Carolyn Jane Talbott to succeed Frank Trautwater as the high school American history and government teacher. Miss Talbott was on the Jeffersonville High School staff for the last half of the last school term. She taught girls physical education and social sciences there. She is a graduate of Bowling Green University with a BS in education, and has a four-year provisional teaching certificate.

Talbott resigned to take a position with Armour & Co.

Mrs. Rosalee Satchell, will re-enter the teaching corps she left in 1950. She was named to teach seventh grade mathematics in the place of Mark Schaeper, who has been advanced to principal of the Central elementary school. Mrs. Satchell is a graduate of Wilmington College and has assumed Greenberg was one.

With this testimony from Dr. Karl August Wittfogel, the Senate internal security subcommittee put into its record on August 31, 1943, letter on White House stationery, with the typed signature of Michael Greenberg.

Also put into the record were documents listing Greenberg as a former employee of the board of economic warfare, the Foreign Economic Administration and the State Department.

One of these documents was a letter from Robert Ramspeck, chairman of the civil service commission, saying that on March 7, 1947, Greenberg was barred from competing in civil service examination.

Sen. McCarthy Investigation Now Demanded by Sen. Benton

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7—(P)—Senator Benton (D-Conn.) said today he will press for a showdown on his demands for a Senate investigation to determine whether Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.) should be expelled.

Benton suggested in a Senate speech yesterday McCarthy should resign. As an alternative, he introduced a resolution proposing an investigation of the Wisconsin lawmaker's activities to determine whether the Senate should oust him.

McCarthy fired back by calling Benton a "mental midget" who, he said, "worked hand in glove with the Crimson Clique" as an assistant secretary of state. He did not elaborate on this point.

Benton said he had no reply to McCarthy's statement "Because I'm not going to engage in that kind of argument."

But he told a reporter "I absolutely am going to press" for action on the proposed resolution to investigate McCarthy.

He will have a chance to do this tomorrow, when the Senate rules committee, of which he is a member, is scheduled to meet behind closed doors.

The resolution quoted excerpts from an elections subcommittee report which denounced as "despicable" some aspects of the 1950

Maryland election campaign which unseated the then Democratic senator, Millard Tydings. The report, made public last week, named McCarthy as an active figure in the Maryland campaign.

McCarthy has denounced the subcommittee report. In one of Maryland's most bitter election campaigns, Republican John Marshall Butler defeated Tydings by a margin of some 43,000 votes. McCarthy went into Maryland to make campaign speeches in Butler's behalf.

Fayette Countion Reveals Plans

MacArthur May Make Ohio Speech

That Gen. Douglas MacArthur may make an address in Ohio at some early future date was revealed today by Virgil Perrill, Fayette County's representative in the House of the Ohio General Assembly.

Perrill, an ex-service man, sponsored a resolution during the last state legislative session which resulted in an invitation to Gen. MacArthur for an address before the legislature in Columbus, but at that time the general could not make the date.

It is now disclosed by Perrill

New Russian Bid For Peace Given Cold Shoulder

'Same Old Chestnut With New Ribbon' In Reaction of U. S.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7—(P)—The United States is reported ready to turn down quickly Russia's newest bid for a Moscow-styled Big Five peace pact to end the cold war.

PROPOSAL REJECTED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7—(P)—The United States today rejected Russia's proposal for a five-power peace pact as "a propaganda trap."

Russian President Nikolai Shvernik revived the two-year-old Soviet offer last night in a surprise letter to President Truman.

"It's the same old chestnut tied with a new ribbon," said a high American official who studied the letter's contents.

Shvernik's message, bristling with denunciations of western "warmongering", was accompanied by a 2500 word resolution proclaiming Russia's alleged dedication to world peace.

This appeared to be Moscow's answer to a resolution Congress passed last June. The American document expressed friendship and goodwill toward the Russian people.

President Truman sent it along to Shvernik, technically Russia's chief of states, July 17. And he called on Russia's leaders to make it public so the Russian people can learn the "peace aims of the American people and government."

Russia's replying resolution came from the presidium of the Supreme Soviet (Parliament), a small group which acts when the Russian legislature is not in session.

In his accompanying letter, Shvernik called for an agreement by the United States, Russia, Britain, France and Communist China to disarm and prohibit manufacture of atomic weapons. He reiterated Russia's willingness to agree to some form of inspection as a guarantee of her good faith.

The United Nations assembly overwhelmingly rejected an identical Soviet offer in November, 1949. American officials recalled. It was made by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky.

Other nations did not trust Russia to live up to its word, these officials said, especially after Vishinsky made it clear Moscow would not agree to United Nations conditions for continuous inspection and international control of atomic energy plants.

Moscow's move in reviving its proposal was viewed by officials here as "a pure propaganda gesture" designed to persuade the world America and not Russia is blocking world peace.

American officials, who are used to Russia's propaganda blasts, scoffed at the latest statement. Russia is so "completely absorbed" in peaceful reconstruction tasks, they said ironically, that it has mobilized the following:

1. More than 200 divisions.
2. The largest airforce in world peacetime history—20,000 first line aircraft.
3. Nearly 3,500,000 troops in Communist China and 1,000,000 in the eastern European satellites.

Nature May Curb Food Prices

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7—(P)—Looks like old mother nature may step in and settle the big controversy over food prices.

In fact, the Bureau of Agricultural Economics says, bountiful crops and livestock prospects this year mean Americans can eat more than ever, send more food abroad, stock more for military purposes and still not drive food prices any higher.

The government bureau said in a food report yesterday any future food price increases will be mostly man made—limited largely to bulges permitted under the new defense production act. The act relaxed limits on margins for processing and marketing food. The bureau said there might be some widening of the farm-to-store price spread.

The bureau said beef cattle prices may drop below ceilings during the heavy marketing season this fall, but that overall supply will probably be about what it was last year—144 pounds per person. Earlier, the bureau predicted 147 pounds. Continued strong meat demand "may prevent and substantial decline in prices," the report said.

It predicted average food consumption will be slightly above 1950 level, and 13 to 14 per cent better than the American table in the pre-war 1935-39 period.

Parents Appeal For Ousted Sons

Dismissal too Harsh They Tell President

WEST POINT, N. Y., Aug. 7—(P)—Irate parents pleaded today that President Truman restore to duty their accused cadet sons, whose pending dismissals from the military academy have started a congressional inquiry.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Aug. 7—(P)—The superintendent of West Point said today any of the 90 accused cadets will be given a chance to resign with a clean record.

Presidential intervention in behalf of the 90 cadets, who face expulsion for cheating at examinations, was sought by a number of their parents now on the West Point campus.

The parents sent a telegram appeal to Mr. Truman last night shortly after a Senate expenditure investigating subcommittee announced in Washington it would begin today checking complaints the cadets got what some of them called a "raw deal."

Both Maj. Gen. Frederick A. Irving, academy superintendent, and Head Football Coach Earl "Red" Blaik, whose vaunted team was hit by the dismissal order Friday, have stated they would like to see such an inquiry.

Message To President

In their telegram to President Truman, the parents said:

"The dismissal in disgrace and without trial of our 90 sons at the military academy is a travesty on the American idea of justice and a needless waste of the lives of these young men. We petition you to make their punishment fit their crime."

"Your order restoring them to duty without prejudice subject to proper cadet discipline, permitting them the right to normal graduation and commission, would be appropriate, charitable and a fatherly act of understanding leadership."

"Make it possible for them to reply in service to the nation for the error of their youth."

"We vouch for these young men. They are our sons."

The telegram was disclosed by retired Army Col. Harrison Travis, of Atlantic Highlands, N. J., who said parents of 15 accused cadets had formed a "parents committee" to fight for their sons in Washington.

Boy Happy over Fish But Costly to Father

QUINCY, Mass., Aug. 7—(P)—Eight-year-old Frank J. Rubin, Jr., was pretty happy over the bass he caught—but not so his doctor father who says it cost him $1,000.

The youngster put the fish in the bathtub to keep it alive and then opened the window to supply it with fresh air.

A thief got in through the open window yesterday and stole $300 in cash, a $300 camera and $400 worth of silverware.

City's Hospitality Counted on To Solve Housing Problem at State Softball Tourney Here

MAX LAWRENCE, DISTRICT SOFTBALL commissioner, looks on (in the above photo) while Mrs. Rachel Urton, Chamber of Commerce office secretary takes down the name of a Washington C. H. resident who has a room available to be rented to a player coming down for the State Tournament which starts August 24.

"There's plenty of work to be done now that Washington C. H. has been selected as the site of the 1951 state softball tournament," Max Lawrence, district commissioner said.

The five-day tourney, which gets underway Friday, August 24, is expected to draw hundreds of players and fans from all over the state. "That's our main worry right now," Lawrence said.

"There will be about 200 ball players in town for the games and many of them plan to stay until the tourney's all over," he said. "These players, along with their wives and friends, will have to have somewhere to stay, and it's up to us to locate the necessary rooms."

Lawrence figures there will be 350 rooms needed each night, to house the players and fans. The hotels in the city will have about 100 rooms available Lawrence said. The motels have already been spoken for, he added.

Since there aren't enough rooms in the hotels Lawrence has set up a room renting service.

"If any one has a room to rent to one or more of the visiting players he can call 8731, the Chamber of Commerce," he said, "and Mrs. Rachel Urton C of C office secretary."

They will put the name on the list."

Then when the players arrive they will register and be assigned one of the rooms.

"Of course, we don't know the number of players and fans planning to attend," Lawrence said, "but we'll need all the rooms we can find."

Thugs Killed In Gang War

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 7—(P)—Gang warfare took the lives of two ex-Kansas City thugs last night.

One of them had just graduated to the FBI's list of the 10 most wanted men.

Tony Trombino and Tony Brancato were shot to death in a car parked just half a block off Hollywood Boulevard.

The bullets entered the backs of their heads as they sat in the front seat of the car. Police believed the shots were fired by someone concealed in the back seat, waiting for the men to enter the automobile. A witness said he saw a man run across the street after the shots and speed away in a waiting car.

Det. Chief Thad Brown said the men had floated for the past five years between the underworlds of Kansas City and Los Angeles.

Brancato, 36, and Trombino, 31, both were questioned about the 1943 shotgun murder of Harry Rothman in Mickey Cohen's haberdashery. Police talked to them again after Cohen was ambushed a year later. This blast killed one of Cohen's henchmen, Neddie Herbert.

Neutrality Violation At Truce Meeting Arouses UN Ire

By OLEN CLEMENTS
TOKYO, Aug. 7—(P)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway told the Reds today Korean cease-fire talks will not be resumed until they assure him they will keep their Kaesong neutrality agreement.

The Allied supreme commander bluntly acknowledged the Red apology for last Saturday's violation of the neutral zone. Then he told them that wasn't enough.

In a strongly-worded message to the two Red commanders in Korea, Ridgway said he needed new assurances that Communists will keep their word.

Only then, he said, will he send his five negotiators back to Kaesong to resume armistice negotiations.

Ridgway, who has twice broken off talks because armed Red troops violated the neutral area, said he didn't think the appearance of a company of heavily armed Communists last Saturday was an "accident," as the Reds stated.

Incident Not Trivial

He told Korean Gen. Kim Il Sung and Chinese Gen. Peng Teh-Huai he considered the incident neither minor nor trivial. And, he said:

"It must be clearly understood that my acceptance of a resumption of the armistice talks is conditional on complete compliance with your guarantees of neutralization of the Kaesong area. Any further failure in this regard will be interpreted as a deliberate move on your part to terminate the armistice negotiations."

"I await your acceptance of this condition."

A company of armed Red soldiers had marched through the Kaesong neutral zone while the armistice conference was underway Saturday. Because of this, Ridgway abruptly broke off the conferences Sunday.

Generals Kim and Peng replied Monday the presence of the troops was "a mistake and an accident."

Their joint statement, as broadcast by the Chinese Peiping radio, referred to it as "a small incident" and accepted General Ridgway's conditions for resumption of the talks.

Ridgway's conditions were a "satisfactory explanation of this violation and assurance of non-recurrence."

Allied Chiefs Confer

Ridgway conferred last night and again this morning with his chief delegate, Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, before issuing his latest ultimatum.

His firmly worded message to the two top Communists noted:

"You state that orders have again been issued to your Kaesong area guards to adhere strictly to the regulation that no armed guards would enter the conference area, in order that incidents similar to that of August 4 will not occur again."

"I have also noted that you describe such incidents as minor, accidental and trivial. Such incidents are of fundamental importance, as I have before pointed out. The incidents are neither minor nor trivial. Their accidental nature is in doubt."

Ridgway had let the Red ponder his next move for more than 24 hours.

Red radios at Peiping and the North Korean capital of Pyongyang kept up a stream of propaganda blaming the United States for the deadlock in negotiations.

Up to the cessation of talks, negotiators had argued for nine days without progress on where to create a buffer zone between the opposing armies.

Contino Sentenced For Draft Evasion

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 7—(P)—Dick Contino, 21, popular accordionist, was sentenced today to six months in prison and was fined $10,000 on a draft evasion charge.

Contino, who made as much as $4,000 a week in theater and night club engagements, pleaded guilty July 24 to a draft dodging charge. After the sentencing, Contino told newsmen "It's all right."

Federal Judge Michael J. Roche told him "the court feels a penalty should be imposed in this case. It is not a proper case for probation."

Levy Proposed For Recreation

Council Passes Resolution Here

Voters in the city will be asked to vote on a levy which will provide funds to continue the city's summer recreational program at the November 6 general election.

This was indicated following the passage of a resolution calling for the submission of the levy proposal to the people at a special meeting of the City Council Monday night in the council chambers.

The levy, two tenths of a mill, would be levied for the years 1951, 52, 53, 54 and 55.

Voters in the city turned down the recreational levy proposal and a one-mill levy proposal for funds to finance a $170,000 program of remodeling at the City Building at the last general election, Nov. 8, 1950.

The City Council apparently does not plan to ask voters to pass the municipal building levy, because the deadline for filing such a proposal with the Fayette County Board of Elections is Wednesday.

Marie Melvin, city auditor, filed a copy of the resolution passed by the council proposing that the levy be submitted to the people in November with the Fayette County Board of Elections on Tuesday.

Council also passed an ordinance making the First National Bank in Washington C. H. the depository for two years for all city funds.

The following appropriations were also voted from the funds listed: $1,000 from the motor vehicle fund to the motor vehicle gas, oil and tire fund; $300 from the motor vehicle fund to repairs, $2,000 from motor vehicle fund to miscellaneous, and $2,000 from motor vehicle fund to gasoline labor.

Council voted to hold its next meeting August 22. During the meeting a budget hearing will be held.

The committee has asked all those planning to attend to bring well filled baskets of food, table service and a drink.

Youth's Car Here Hit By Driver Who Runs

Donald C. Woods, 18, of Washington C. H., was involved in an accident Sunday night north of Bremen (Fairfield County) in which Eli Smith, 69, of near Logan, was cited as a hit-skip driver.

State highway patrolmen reported that Smith's car was traveling on the left side of the highway and hit the car driven in the opposite direction by Woods.

Smith failed to stop and outran Woods in a short chase. Woods called state highway patrolmen, and after a license check, Smith was apprehended at his home. Damage was slight to both cars.

Three men got their petitions in for City Council on Tuesday. They included Roy Baughn, Robert Sanderson, Jr. and Paul Van Voorhis.

There was a report that the Business and Professional Women might enter a candidate before the Wednesday deadline, but by late Tuesday morning spokesman for the business women's organization said no decision had been reached on the matter.

Justice of Peace Peter S. Ludwig denied Monday that he planned to run for a post on the Council, although he said several of his friends had urged him to get into the race.

There will be five positions open on the council this year.

If you use tea bags when making iced tea remember to use six of the bags to four cups of boiling water; let stand for about five minutes, then stir, strain and pour into ice-filled tall glasses. Serve with lemon (cut in wedges so it's easy to squeeze) and fine granulated sugar that dissolves quickly.

Tips on Summer Skin Care

BY BETTY CLARKE
Summertime is an excellent time to be skin conscious. The touch of soft and smooth skin carries the aura of beauty and romance. We can't all have complexions the texture of a rose petal, but we can have fresh, well-cared-for skin.

It is easy to be careless when we are busy. But that's no excuse. Once in a while we should take time out to have a thorough examination of the skin. Take a magnifying mirror and under bright lights examine your skin carefully. Do you see blackheads or whiteheads? If so, you've been careless with cleansing the skin.

If skin is dry and flaky, it needs lubrication. If there are signs of oil around the nose and a tired look to the skin, you will need to use more drying preparations. When you notice lines, don't become confused and think they are all signs of age. That isn't true. There are laugh lines and lines of expression and they all give personality to the face. But beware of lines which show unhappiness or irritability. An unhappy look can spoil the most beautiful face.

Morning and night, cleanse the face with soap and water. Apply nourishing cream or an oil such as baby oil, olive oil or mineral oil at night. If skin is dry, use lubrication morning and night. Take your bath or shower while the cream is still on your face. Remove it before you start dressing. Apply good quality witch hazel to face and neck. Keep this astringent in the ice-box and use it chilled during the summer months. It is a delightful skin refresher.

Now you are ready for a powder base—if you use one. You should select your base with an eye to your particular type of complexion. For a dry skin, be sure the base has an oily feel. The oily skin can use the powder cake type of base. Put the base on carefully, blending it outward to the edge of the hair. When you are satisfied with the result, accent your coloring with your other makeup.

When you're serving chilled canned vichyssoise for a soup-starter grate a tiny bit of nutmeg over each serving just before you pass the bowls.

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, Aug. 7—(AP)—The next fiery business in Congress will be the foreign aid program. Coals are being heaped on it now.

There are two issues: How much money should be spent on it? And who'll run it?

Reason for the upcoming fight: Our foreign aid in the past was mainly economic. Now the nature of that aid has changed.

Now it will be combined economic-military help. It will be mainly military, giving arms. And the cost will be greater.

When the Marshall Plan was created four years ago it was expected to end by 1952. By then the need for it was expected to end.

It was to help western Europe recover from the war. If it had collapsed Communism might have been able to take it over from the inside, without firing a shot.

Europe made a good recovery. But this country and western Europe realized a new danger: This country and western Europe were not prepared to stop Communism if it attacked with arms.

The attack on Korea was the shock that drove the U. S. and western Europe into re-arming. Two new problems arose:

1. Western Europe needed military help from us. It couldn't produce all the arms it needed.

2. It needed continued economic help to keep up its living standards, for the more arms its factories produced, the less goods for civilians there'd be.

So far $12,300,000,000 has been pumped into the Marshall Plan. But Secretary of State Acheson says the new economic-military program of aid will cost $25,000,000,000 in the next three years.

Of that $25,000,000,000 President Truman has asked Congress to vote $8,500,000,000 for this year; $6,300,000,000 for arms; $2,200,000,000 for economic aid.

The biggest part of this help is for western Europe. But some will go to the Near East, Latin America, and countries of Asia.

As he has in the past on other programs, Senator Taft, Ohio Republican, says the amount asked by Mr. Truman sounds too high. And even one of Mr. Truman's staunchest supporters on previous aid programs, Senator Connally, Texas Democrat, got angry over the scope of this program and the drain on the taxpayers.

So the question of cost will be fought out. Equally unsettled is the question of who'll run it.

While our foreign aid was still strictly economic, under the Marshall plan, two agencies had chief interest in it: ECA -- The Economic Cooperation Administration -- which Congress created to run the plan; and the State Department, which runs our foreign policy.

Since the foreign aid and our foreign policy were tied in together, ECA and state worked hand-in-glove although ECA remained independent. Congress wanted it that way.

(When the Marshall plan was

It Costs a Lot To Run a Circus

Show Is Booked For WCH Saturday

A circus without clowns . . . well, it just wouldn't be a circus. But, the Al G. Kelly-Miller Bros. Circus that is booked for afternoon and evening shows here Saturday boasts a troupe of funny-men that will bring joy to the kiddies and laughs to the oldesters.

Clown 'Bozo' Bonham

The show, which travels by truck caravan, is to arrive here early in the morning and set up the "big top" and menagerie tent on the lot just west of the city on the CCC Highway. The advance man for the show said the management always hangs out a big welcome sign for the townsfolk to being approved in 1947 George C. Marshall, now secretary of defense but then secretary of state, wanted his State Department to be big boss over the foreign aid but Congress wanted the aid handled independently of state and set up ECA.)

ECA and state would still have a top interest in the new program but, since it involves military help as well as economic, Marshall's defense department which does our military planning at home and abroad, has an equally vital interest in it.

That makes three agencies with a hand in the new plan. Suppose they can't agree on a problem. Who, then, will have final say? Mr. Truman, although vague about it, has made it pretty plain he wants Acheson's State Department to have that final say.

watch the orderly and fast transition from truck train to circus.

"That's so they'll know how much of a circus we have," he said. The collection of wild animals, he emphasized, was one of the big features of the show.

The troupe of 23 clowns is headed by "Bozo" Bonham. Among them are acrobats and entertainers of rare ability, but they submerge that, under their antics for laughs.

Support for Claims

The advance man for the circus gave some facts and figures to support the show's reputation of being the "second largest now touring America."

For instance: It moves in 65 all steel semi-trailer trucks; employs 450 people; has 36 cages of wild animals; six herds of elephants; 16 camels; 11 zebras; 107 show horses, including those used by the bareback riders and several dens of tropical reptiles.

The actual daily operating expense, he said, would average more than $2,300 and the six tents cover more than seven and a half acres. The main tent has a seating capacity of nearly 5,000.

More than 2,000 meals are served every day, he said, in the big canvas restaurant. The giant ranges on which the meals are cooked are wagons weighing nearly 10 tons, and, he added, "it's not unusual to hear the chef place an order for 5,000 griddle cakes and a proportionate amount of bacon and eggs for a single breakfast."

"Practically all the food purchases are made daily in the city where the circus is playing," he explained. The cost of running the commissary alone was estimated at more than $860 a day.

Trautman Endorsed By Gov. Lausche

COLUMBUS, Aug. 7 — (AP) — Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio listed as a possible candidate for the job of baseball commissioner — today endorsed another man for the job.

"I'd like to see 'Red' Trautman get it," said Gov. Lausche. He referred to George McNeal Trautman of Columbus, president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (the minors).

The Columbus Dispatch viewed this statement as Lausche's virtual renunciation of the baseball job.

Neighbors Squabble Here in Summertime, Justice Claims

Summer may bring joy and bliss to some, but take it from Justice of Peace Peter S. Ludwick -- it's no peace of paradise for many people here.

People are just plain cussed during the summer, Justice Ludwick claims.

"They're always wanting to put somebody under a peace bond," he vouches.

With warm weather out comes the kids, dogs and trouble. Neighbors who have been neighbors during the winter turn to pests in the summer.

"While the kids are playing in the back the parents are fighting in the front yard," Justice Ludwick says.

Asked to explain what a sample case of family trouble is like, Justice Ludwick picked this one:

"This party has a little fox terrier. It's about three or four years old. The dog barks, and the man next door can't sleep; can't eat; can't do anything.

"The dog is in the middle between two other houses. A son-in-law in one got into a fight. One came in and swore out an assault and battery charge. Then the other has the others for assault and battery.

Dog Cause of Trouble

"The dog bites the kids, and 14 people come up to my office and crowd in there. They're all talking about this poor little dog. 'I tell them to send the dog to the country, and put them under a peace bond. 'I haven't head anything from them since. I don't know whether the dog went to the country or not.'"

Justice Ludwick says he usually gives the neighborhood trouble

Communist Youths Jam East Berlin

BERLIN, Aug. 7 — (AP) — East Berlin was jammed with Communist youth today for a "world peace festival" whose main theme was hatred of the United States and loyalty to Russia's Prime Minister Stalin.

The tone for the $10,000,000 celebration was set yesterday in fiery speeches at the opening Hitler-style rally by East Germany's Communist President Wilhelm Pieck.

About 80,000 blue-shirted young Communists crowded a sports arena in the Russian sector to hear him denounce the "American-English war-makers." In response, the youngsters roared lustily:

"Long live the Soviet Union, which gives the great example of peaceful construction to the peoples.

"Long live the great leader in the world fight for the peaceful future of the peoples, Josef Vissarionovich Stalin."

Union Being Sued For Strike Damage

TOLEDO, Aug. 7 — (AP) — A Winchester, Ind., glass company today sought damages of $250,000 from the AFL Flint Glass workers plus $10,000 for each day an al-makers about six months probation, a little fine and sometimes a little jail sentence.

He figures that the cussedness will last for about another month, or until the end of the warm weather, then people will start treating their neighbors like neighbors a little more.

"In the winter we don't have it (the trouble). The kids snowball in the winter. A kid comes in with a black eye he got on the street, and the parents do nothing," Justice Ludwick claims.

So maybe winter has something in its favor at least, the experiences of Justice Ludwick would show it did.

leged violation of a "no strike" contract pledge continues.

The lawsuit, filed in federal district court here, names as defendants the National union, which has headquarters in Toledo, and its Winchester, Ind., affiliate, local 412. It charges 470 employees of the Overmyer Mould Co., Inc., of Winchester stayed away from work June 20-21 and have been on strike since July 16, violation of the Taft-Hartley law.

The dispute was over the company's use of a mechanical process for finishing glass moulds, which resulted in certain work being routed away from 20 "vise men" who are members of local 412, according to the petition.

Wage Hike Granted To Rubber Workers

CLEVELAND, Aug. 7 — (AP) — Half of the rubber industry's big four have come to terms with the CIO United Rubber Workers on a 1951 wage increase.

Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. agreed here last night to grant the union a 12 cent-an-hour general increase, retroactive to last Monday. The raise goes to some 23,000 workers in eight cities and will bring the overall average pay to about $2 an hour.

The agreement further specified "an additional one cent an hour as a supplement to the general wage increase." The company said the one cent would not necessarily go to all workers but would be paid as the union saw fit.

Teen-age Story Has Bright Side

Youth Is Trained For Business Life

NEW YORK, Aug. 7—(AP)—The idea of training teen-agers to be business men is spreading through the nation.

Business firms in 20 states are behind the movement, known as junior achievement companies. Their success is a pleasant other side of the teen-age story -- an antidote to the recent accounts of narcotic addiction in high schools, of moral laxity among college athletes.

Under the junior achievement plan youngsters from 16 to 20 years of age form their own companies, sell stock in them, make and sell products, keep the books and manage the business.

Eighty percent of the companies make a nice profit, but they do so after the young men and women have done considerable nail-chewing while they risk their own and other people's money. Some just break even -- and learn that's no way to run a business. And some go broke -- and learn that a businessman's job isn't as easy as it looks.

National Expansion

Junior Achievement, Inc., has been promoted on a national expansion scale only since the fall of 1949. But in the school year ended in June, there were more than two thousand such companies, manned by nearly 30 thousand teen-age officers and workers. The companies are liquidated at end of each school year, and usually the youngsters are able to vote themselves a nice final bonus out of the profits.

Business firms backing the movement, according to the National Industrial Conference Board aim "to give the American boys and girls a positive education in owning, managing and operating their own business so they can learn at first hand the functions of capital, management and labor."

Here is how junior achievement companies operate: Each has a business firm sponsor that furnishes three advisors, one each from the accountancy, production and sales departments. Membership is limited to 15, and there is no featherbedding. Each one has to work. They start by floating a stock issue. Each youngster must buy one 50-cent share, and can buy up to five. Then they must sell the rest around their town. They rent a "business center," usually in a school or clubroom, or some business plant.

Meet Once a Week

Junior workers meet one evening each week for two hours. At each meeting they first tackle their problems: wage increases, stepping up or cutting back production schedules, sales volume and administering personnel--including the sometimes troublesome problem of absenteeism. Then they start working on the product they've chosen to make and sell. These products or services run a wide range. About 40 percent are manufacturing enterprises. A San Francisco group make hair shampoo.

A Chicago junior company made $166 profit on plastic food bags, table cloths and cover sets. A Dayton, Ohio, company made Christmas tree ornaments early in the school year and then switched to plastic racks. Another in that city made soda straw-holders, football pins and coasters.

Man Found Hanging In Home Basement

CINCINNATI, Aug. 7—(AP)—The body of William Christopher Kearns, 67, was found hanging in the basement of his home early today.

Attached to a wall was a magazine, opened to a photograph which carried the caption, "I Watched a Man Hang."

Police listed the death as suicide.

The Military Academy at West Point had only 10 cadets when it was opened, July 4, 1802.

Warm Clothes Are Invented With Tin Can

FAYETTESVILLE, Ark. — A tin can, thermometer and wind tunnel have helped produce a new type lightweight material for cold weather wear. The fabric may have military value.

It was developed by M. E. Barker, a chemical engineering professor at the University of Arkansas.

The fabric, called Barker cloth, comprises a new cotton product with wool felt grids.

It is just as warm, Barker claims, as the warmest garments he knows--furs or fabrics padded with duck down or lined with synthetic insulation. The advantage his cloth has, he says, is its light weight, lack of bulk and inexpensiveness.

The research project, which he largely financed himself, required more than two years. Barker, a former Army colonel, declined to discuss--except off the record--the possible military value of his discovery.

His interest in clothing to combat the elements stems from big game hunting and army service in various parts and climates of the world--Siberia, the Philippines, Alaska, Italy, Canada, North Africa and Okinawa.

After joining the faculty here, Barker set out to see if he could keep a person warm but wasn't bulky, heavy or uncomfortable.

Using a gallon can to simulate the human body, he filled it with water warmed to the temperature of a human body. He put a sensitive thermometer in the water and covered the can with various fabrics. Then he subjected them to wind, rain and other simulated elements.

The thermometer supplied the answer. Some fabrics let the wind leak through. Others were slow to dry after being moistened. Barker determined that keeping out the movement of air was the objective. He hit upon cotton with felt grids, containing small holes and placed an inch apart.

Senator's Jaw Broken By Kick of a Horse

Hell Is Described By Man Who Died

PENANG — (AP) — Fifty-nine-year-old Prasman Tambulong, an Indian overseer, "died" and when he awoke told a strange tale of visiting Hell.

While relatives prepared him for burial, Prasman claimed his spirit wandered for five minutes "in a strange hereafter where there was only bare land, without houses and trees."

"It was drab, misty and weird. I looked round and saw spikes on which some wrongdoers were being punished," he said. These people looked like ordinary beings, except that they had large heads with tremendous eyes, ears and noses. All around me were boiling cauldrons and huge flames. Suddenly I was thrust into a deep, fathomless pool of icy-cold water which practically numbed me."

At this stage Prasman "returned to life." A few minutes more and he would have gone into a grave. Medical authorities, however, said they thought Prasman might have been in a delirium during his visit to "Hell."

The painted skulls, says Frank M. Setzler, head curator of anthropology for the National Museum, are often carried about by a close relative of the deceased, or suspended from a tree limb near a camp. The belief is that possession of the skull will attract the dead person's spirit.

Pierson Is Reelected As OHSFCA Director

Fred Pierson, head coach of Washington C. H. High School, today started serving another two-year term as chairman of district No. 14 of the Ohio High School Football Coaches Association.

He received notice of his reelection from Carl F. Schroeder, secretary-treasurer of the OHSFCA, just as he was getting ready to leave for Middletown Tuesday morning to take in the sixth coaching school and clinic sponsored by the association.

In the district represented by Coach Pierson are Fayette, Clinton, Ross, Scioto, Highland and Adams Counties.

Pierson said he planned to take in "practically all" of the sessions of the OHSFCA Clinic at Middletown.

Coach Sid Gilman, coach of the University of Cincinnati and "master of the slide rule T." is to unfold at the Tuesday meeting some of the maneuvers and tricks he has used to produce winning Bearcat teams.

On Wednesday, Burt Ingwersen, famed line coach of the University of Illinois, is to have the floor and conduct the clinic.

Charlie Caldwell, "Coach of the Year" from Princeton, is to give some of the strategy he uses so effectively under the single wing system in his session on Thursday.

For Friday, the committee has lined up a series of talks by Paul Bryant, coach of the University of Kentucky's Sugar Bowl champions.

SATURDAY IS THE BIG SESSION. Coach Woody Hayes, who went from Miami University successes to Ohio State University this year is to tell about "Picking the player for a 'T' and 'Scoring Plays Inside the 20-yard Line'." He also will discuss the "Cold Zone as a Pass Defense".

At this session, too, Coach Chuck Thackera of the South All-Stars will be introduced. Coach Junie Ferrall of the North All-Stars is to tell about the "Basic Offense To Be Used by the North All-Stars" and Thackera will make a similar expose of the offensive plans for the South.

At all of the clinic sessions, the lectures are to be illustrated with motion pictures.

The visiting coaches also will be privileged to watch the evening practices of the North and South All-Star teams which are to meet Saturday night. This game will bring together the cream of last season's Ohio high school seniors. They have been divided into teams geographically north and south of an imaginary line cutting the state in half.

Tuition to the coach school is $15 and that includes a ticket to the All-Star game. For members of the OHSFCA it is only $10.

Coach Pierson said Harry Townsend, assistant football coach at WHS, probably would attend some of the sessions. Townsend is pretty busy right now, he explained, as co-director of the city recreation program.

Several Washington C. H. football fans are planning to go to Middletown for the All-Star game Saturday night. Pierson said. He added that he had received "a lot" of inquiries, but up to now none had come to any final decision. Pierson said he could arrange for tickets for the game at $1 apiece.

Field of 23 Trotters Expected To Face Hambletonian Starter

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 7—(AP)—The mob scene which is expected to be the 1951 edition of the Hambletonian classic will be clarified today as the owners of the country's top three-year-old trotters trek to the entry box and post their $500 starting fee.

A field of some 23 horses--largest in the history of trotting's Kentucky Derby--is expected for one of the most wide-open Hambletonians of them all.

The 26th Hambletonian already is assured to be the richest, since the gross value will top $90,000 if only 15 face the starter for the first heat tomorrow at 2 P. M. (EST). The largest field ever to start was 19 when Titan Hanover won in 1945.

Charm old Goshen has been humming for days, and harness horse devotees from far and wide are pouring into town where the week long grand circuit meeting opened yesterday at colorful Good Time Park.

Among the horsemen, talk of a probable favorite swings to the entry of Mighty Fine and Spennib, a pair of stars from the Hayes Fair Acres Stable, Du Quoin, Ill.

Bill Cane, who staged his first Hambletonian at the kite shaped Good Time Track in 1930, said the field would start in tiers of 11 horses.

No less than seven betting entries are in the lineup, headed by the Hayes Fair Acres pairs.

Others included: The Ben White Stable entry of Sugar Candy, Gibson White, Orlando, Fla., and True Boy, owned jointly by White and W. H. Foster, Marion, O.

Hambletonian veterans said the race might go three, and possibly four one-mile heats before a winner is decided. The horse winning two heats gets the top money, 55 per cent of the gross. Six horses share in the pot on a percentage basis.

County Tournament Postponed by Rain

Monday night's rain caused a change in the county softball tournament schedule, according to Ron Guinn and Harry Townsend, city recreation directors.

In order to make up the games, three games are on the schedule for Tuesday evening (tonight) on the Wilson Field diamond. This change will also affect the whole schedule which was handed to the managers of the teams, Guinn said, and all managers were requested to contact either of the directors to obtain the new schedule.

Tonight's games include Pennington Bakery and W. C. French at 6:30 P. M., Armo and NCR in the second game and Armbrust and the Welding School in the third game of the evening.

The winners of these three games will continue in the winners bracket while the losers will have another chance to gain the crown and the right to be the host team for the State Softball tournament later in the month.

Baseball Burlesque Put on in Movieland

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 7—(AP)—Bob Hope pitched a mean curve ball—it sailed down on a tiny parachute.

Tony Curtis got the loudest screams from the fans, and Shelley Winters smashed a hit off the shapely delivery of Jane Russell. So it went last night at the fifth annual "Out-of-This-World series" baseball game sponsored by the Hollywood Junior Chamber of Commerce.

A spokesman estimated a capacity-plus crowd of 11,000 paid $23,500 to see a star team called "The Bob Hopefuls" play (Gary) Cooper's "Cutthroats." Proceeds go to youth welfare activities.

Recalled Yankee Blanks Senators

Only Two Games Played in Majors

By JOE REICHLER
(By The Associated Press)
The New York Yankees appear to have come up with a worthy replacement for 21-year-old Eddie Ford. He is 21-year-old Tom Morgan.

One of the reasons critics were predicting the fall of the Yankee empire last spring was because of Ford's call to the armed forces. Early hopes Morgan might do it faded when the young right-hander was shipped to Kansas City last May after losing his first start. But Morgan came back after a month of seasoning and wasted no time filling Ford's shoes.

Stengel started him against Washington on June 28 and he responded by shutting out the Senators, 3-0. Since then he has racked up seven more triumphs without a defeat. His eighth straight came last night, a 4-0 whitewash job against the same Senators. It was his third shutout. He won a 1-0 hurling duel from Ned Garver of St. Louis on July 20.

The victory stretched the Yankees' first-place American League lead over second-place Cleveland to one full game and over third-place Boston to four games. Both Cleveland and Boston were idle.

In the only other big league activity, Chicago's fourth-place White Sox whipped the Tigers in Detroit, 10-1. First baseman Eddie Robinson cracked two home runs, a double and single to lead the Sox attack while right-hander Joe Dobson stopped the Tigers with five hits for his seventh win.

District Tournament Games Rained Out

Rain played an important part in Monday night's scheduled district softball tournament in Sabina. The scheduled opening round of play was postponed until Tuesday evening (tonight).

The first round of play included games between Irwin Auger Bit of Clinton County and Frank Crano, Inc. of Clark County. That game will start at 8 P. M. Tuesday (tonight), if it doesn't rain.

Hamilton Burger Beer is scheduled to play the Sabina VFW in the second game on the Memorial Park diamond.

Wednesday night's games include a game between the Fairborn girls and the White Clover Dairy team, starting at 7:30 P. M. at Memorial Park. At 9:15 P. M., the Mad River Merchants of Montgomery County and the Hamilton Coca-Cola team will vie for a win.

To Honor Bob Feller

CLEVELAND, Aug. 7.—(AP)—The Cleveland Baseball Club and the local chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America will honor Bob Feller next Monday night. The ceremony for the Tribe's winningest hurler will be staged before the Indians game with the Detroit Tigers.

How to Give Quick Relief to Scratching Dogs

Thousands of dog owners have found this good way to keep their pets from constant scratching, biting, rubbing and digging. Once a week give them a dose of Rex Hunters Dog Powders. These tablets usually help to bring prompt relief from an intense itching irritation that has entered in the nerve endings of the dog's skin. The urge to scratch abates—the dog is happier, more content. No wonder a purchaser writes: "Rex Hunters Dog Powder Tablets have given my dog great relief. Many thanks from 'Chine' and self."

Why not try them on your own scratching dog? For sale at any good drug store and pet shop. Economy size box $1 only.

IMPORTANT: Rectal itching, bad breath, watery eyes and fits. Such symptoms indicate worms. Rex Hunters dependable Worm Capsules give immediate results.

Handicap Tourney Is Nearing End While Championship Flights Start

Three more matches remain to be played to pave the way for the one to decide the Country Club handicap golf champion for 1951. They are between Ronnie Cornwell and Marvin Thornburg; the winner of that match and Bob Wise and between Ben Wright and John Petty.

In the most recent elimination matches leading up to these semifinals, Cornwell defeated Fred Pierson 5 and 4; Wise beat Harold Hyer 6 and 5 and Petty turned back Rolland Chase, 4 and 2.

Meanwhile, the annual championship and its attendant flight matches were getting under way.

In the scramble for the championship, now held by Cornwell, Bill Himmelsbach defeated Dr. Bob Hagerty, 2 up; Bill McLean beat Frank Truitt, 5 and 3; Dick Korn beat Marvin Thornburg, 2 up; Chuck Dutton beat Jack Hagerty, 8 and 7 and Dick Chestnut beat Carl Kestner.

ONE OF THE BIGGEST upsets of the week was the defeat of Truitt by McLean. Although McLean has long been rated among the club's top golfers, he has just recently returned to the sport after a lengthy layoff. Besides, Truitt, the basketball coach at Bloomingburg High School, was good enough to go into the finals of the state district tournament in Columbus, last month. McLean's triumph was no fluke—he was even par all the way and that's admittedly pretty hard to beat.

In some of the early matches in the flight tournaments Ben Wright defeated Bill Heinz, 1 up; Stan Hagerty beat Chuck Ledford, 3 and 2; Howard (Dink) Dellinger beat Bud Dawson, 3 and 2; Dewey Sheidler defeated Bob Green, 5 and 4; Marshall Morr beat Merrill Kaufman, 2 up; Herb Sollars beat Clarence Cooper, 1 up on 19 holes; Dr. Fred D. Woollard beat John Loofborrow, 3 and 2 and John Gerstner beat George Finley, 5 and 3.

THIS AND THAT FROM the notebook of Pro Tony Capuana: Chuck Dutton shot another 34, his second two-under-par score this season.

Talk about horseshoes. Herb Sollars banked a shot off a tree near the No. 9 green and almost sank it for a birdie 4.

Among the younger golfers now regulars at the game are Jim Rife, Dick Dawson, Jim Fox, Bud Dawson, Bob Cullen, Dean Wickensimer, Bob Craig, Jr., Dick O'-

Brien, Dick Korn, Merrill Kaufman, Dave Korn, Ed Korn, Denny O'Connor, Jerry Morr and Jerry Wright.

Dick Korn had his best-ever, a 35, with eight one-putt greens. Dick is playing the best golf of his career right now.

Lowell Miller had his best-ever, a 45. He and Harold Hyer golfed in Circleville last week.

Fred Pierson, Bill Himmelsbach, Chuck Dutton and Chuck Cummings golfed at the Snowhill Country Club near Wilmington last week.

Ervin (Rip) Van Winkle knows what to do when he has too much trouble with his wood clubs -- he uses his irons almost exclusively and cuts down his score.

Marion (Dutch) Rife had a 40 last week. It was his best-ever score.

Some scores turned in last week are Dr. O. W. House 40; Dink Dillinger 39; Merrill Kaufman 41; John Petty 40; Bill McLean 35; Dr. I. L. Humphrey 39; Hap Weatherly 44; Max Lawrence 37; Tony Capuana 33; Carl Kestner 35; Gene McClain 41; Ed Korn 46; Bob Wise 43; Bud Dawson 39; Brad Johnson 44; Bud Schlue 39 and Dr. Bob Hagerty 35.

The Washington C. H. Country Club team is booked to play a return match with the Wilmington team at the Snowhill Country Club course on Aug. 12. The WCH team won the match played here two weeks ago.

"IT'S SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD."

THIS BIG 28-POUND SHOVELHEAD catfish (shown being weighed) fell for a sucker on the trotline of Harold Cabbage. Cabbage brought the big one in to be weighed on the scales in the Record-Herald Monday. He caught it in Deer Creek near Williamsport Friday night. Cabbage plans to have it mounted to go along side the 28 1-2 pounder he caught last year about this time. (Record-Herald photo)

Who Is the 'Mr. X' of Baseball In Line for Commissioner Job?

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Who is the "Mr. X" the club owners refuse to identify as their dark horse candidate for baseball commissioner?

As the 16 big league executives convened today to elect or get a closer line on their next commissioner, "Mr. X" appeared to be the possible choice over the "big five" in the fore of the speculation.

The five are Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the tremendous national figure; James A. Farley, the business man; and George Trautman, so highly placed that it would embarrass him if it were to be known.

The general feeling is that no new commissioner will emerge from the meeting.

Graziano Wins Comeback Fight

Decision over Hunter Brings Confusion

BOSTON, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Rocky Graziano who hopes to regain the world middleweight championship one day, won another fight last night—from Chuck Hunter of Cleveland—but there was considerable confusion before the verdict was announced finally.

Massachusetts boxing commissioners announced, belatedly, "Graziano wins. Hunter is disqualified and his purse forfeited to the commonwealth."

Graziano, who had a similar experience four weeks ago in Kansas City with Cecil Hudson of Milwaukee, appeared to have knocked out Hunter late in the second round.

Referee Ed McDonald began counting when Hunter went down after being hit on the chin by a Graziano right cross.

McDonald appeared to have counted Hunter out and headed for that portion of ringside where the commissioners sit.

The two fighters began mixing

embarrass him if it were to be known.

The general feeling is that no new commissioner will emerge from the meeting.

it again and McDonald stopped them.

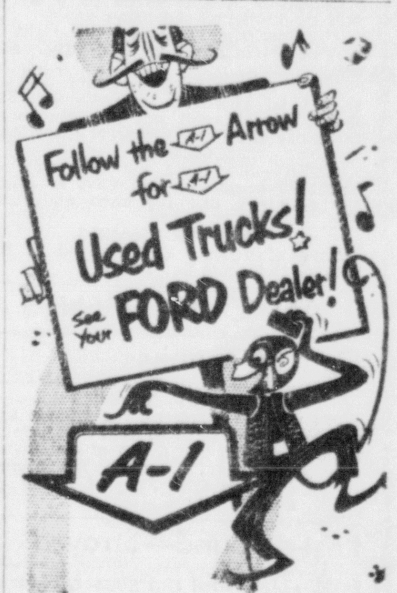

The fight was announced "no contest." McDonald explained only, "The whole thing stunk from the start, Hunter was slapping," before Commission Chairman Peter (Tansey) Norton pulled him aside. The news so went out before Norton and Commissioner Tommy McFarland reappeared at the deserted ringside and told boxing writers the final decision.

First Win in 14 Starts Chalked Up by Gay One

WESTBURY, N. Y., Aug. 7.—(AP)—Gay One, owned by Chet-Lynn Farms of Junction City, Ohio, won her first race in 14 starts last night in accounting for the California

Turf Writers' Association purse at Roosevelt Raceway.

The six-year-old pacer, driven by Chester Fleure, stepped the miles in 2:05 and finished two lengths in front of Harold Abbe. Moore Volo was third in the eight-horse field. Gay one paid $9.60, $5.20 and $4.40.

Dagmar More than Name Now; She Has Become a Definition

Dagmar—synonym for full-bodied beauty.

By CELIA WEBSTER
Central Press Correspondent
NEW YORK—Nature has been kind in dealing out beauty and brains combined to the curvaceous Dagmar, one of the most popular stars in the television world.

Dagmar, television's star of Broadway Open House, has been called "the amazing Amazon." Five feet, eight inches tall in her stocking feet, she brings whistles, ohs, and ahs from her audience when she comes on the stage.

Only "Dag" as she is so fondly known to the network family, could destroy the English language so completely and still uphold the reputation of being one of today's most glamorous women.

IN THE fall, another network is giving Dagmar a show of her own, so far identified only as a situation comedy, reflecting her remarkable rise in entertainment's newest medium. Her take will be $3,500 a week!

Dagmar, born in Huntington, W. Va., 24 years ago, as Virginia Ruth Egnor, was cited as a tap dancer and a typist. She won prizes in both fields. She chose the entertainment world for her career and set out for New York.

She made only one appearance at an audition, snagged a principal part in Olsen and Johnson's "Laffin' Room Only," and was on her way to stardom. In 1948, she played in the hit play "Burlesque" with Bert Lahr.

In 1949, the blonde beauty made her television debut. Since that time, she has appeared on many top television shows, including five guest spots on the Frank Sinatra Show. "He is a wonderful person to work with," says Dagmar. "We recently made a recording of 'Mama Will Bark.'"

IN JUNE of 1950, a new show, Broadway Open House, had been cast and its star Jerry Lester wanted Dagmar to participate as the beautiful, but dumb blonde. Her instructions from Lester were to "stay in the range of the camera." She was an immediate success on the show, not only because of her physical appeal, but because of her clever "plays," which all but murder the English language.

Dagmar tells of one Wednesday night, after doing a guest appearance on Earl Wilson's show, she dropped in on the Wednesday edition of Broadway Open House. (The Monday and Wednesday BOH have a different cast.)

She says, "I have always wanted to surprise the audience on that show." During the last portion, Dag walked on stage, looked around, and said, "Oh, pardon me, wrong night!" She then turned around and walked off the stage. "It got a big laugh," quips Dag.

One thing which pleases Dagmar immensely is her fan mail. She says, "I receive more fan mail from women than men. Some ask for photographs to be addressed and autographed to their husbands, instead of themselves." This should be proof enough that, even though Dagmar is on the television screen primarily because of her appeal to men, she has captured the female audience as well.

BENEATH all this glamour is an exceptional person. Warm, kind, gracious in her manner, she possesses an unusual sense of humor. Her infectious laugh finds her completely out of the character she portrays.

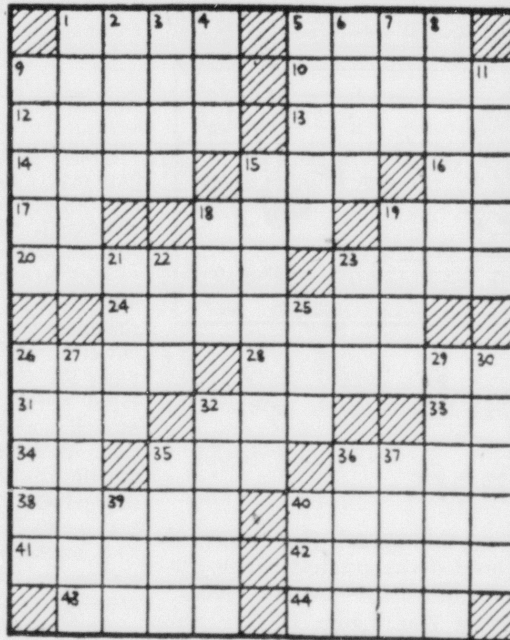

Dagmar lives in New York. Recently, her mother visited her. Says Dagmar, "I took mother to the Copacabana to see Jimmy Durante, who was pinch-hitting for Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis. After she went back home, I phoned her to see how she was feeling and she said her arm bothered her." Dagmar was concerned, and asked her what she thought was the matter with it. Her mother replied, "I think I applauded too hard at the Copa."

On May 21, Dagmar was married to Danny Dayton, an actor whom she has known for two years. They were married in Las Vegas, Nev.

Television has made her name a standard word by now. Eventually, we may find included in the dictionary's synonyms for beauty and glamour, the word "Dagmar."

What's Not Known Is More Important

COLUMBUS, Aug. 7 —(AP)—A research expert said today the unknown about uranium and titanium is more important than what already is known.

Dr. Clyde Williams, director of Battelle Institute here, made the assertion in the Cleveland Federal Reserve Bank's monthly business review. Battelle is a private research organization.

Williams used the two as examples of uncommon metals. He said the same thing holds true for such tongue twisters as zirconium, vanadium, germanium, molybdenum, beryllium, columbium and cerium.

"What is not yet known about the uncommon metals is vastly more important than what is known," he stated. And he predicted that living standards will improve as knowledge about them increases.

Milk Strike Ends; Price Hike Looms

CINCINNATI, Aug. 7 —(AP)—The milk strike in Cincinnati and parts of northern Kentucky ended Monday.

Housewives found the usual bottles of cream and milk in front of their doors, and grocery stores were getting supplies.

It was a happy day for the kids, too, for the three-day stoppage of deliveries of dairy products exhausted the ice cream in drug stores and confectioneries.

Granting of pay increases and other benefits by the 43 firms affected by the strike will give them cause to seek increases in the retail price of milk, a spokesman said.

State House Rotunda To Get Free Murals

COLUMBUS, Aug. 7 —(AP)—The state is going to get two free murals for the rotunda of the state house.

Samuel O. Linzell, state public works director, said today the National Academy of Design has set aside $15,000 for the murals. The academy has commissioned Arthur Crisp, nationally-known mural painter, to do the work.

Visiting Rules Are Changed At Hospital

Trustees Adopt Recommendations or Medical Staff

As a result of a recent visit here by an inspection officer of the Ohio State Board of Health, and of recommendations made by the hospital medical and surgical staff for the benefit of all patients, the board of trustees of the Fayette County Memorial Hospital has established some new slight restrictions regarding visitors to patients at the institution.

At a meeting of the board of trustees Monday evening at the hospital, written recommendations were submitted by the hospital medical staff, signed by Dr. Byers W. Shaw, as secretary. The letter of recommendations was as follows:

"The following recommendation which was recently made to the hospital administrator, by the inspection officer of the Ohio State Board of Health, the licensing agent for Maternity License, has been brought to the attention of the Fayette County Memorial Hospital Medical Staff.

"Recommendation in accordance with the code: That not more than two visitors be permitted in a given visiting period to see mothers in the Maternity Division.

"The medical staff endorses this recommendation and wishes also to recommend to the board of trustees the following changes in general visiting regulations:

"(a) That the visiting hours be changed to, afternoon, 2:00 to 4:00 P. M. and evenings, 7:00 to 8:30 P. M.

"(b) That to avoid congestion in the Medical and surgical Division, visitors be encouraged to see only one patient in a given visiting period."

According to the hospital authorities the new regulations adopted by the board are entirely for the benefit of many patients. There have been some abuses of visiting privileges, it is said, especially where visitors obtain a permission card to visit one patient and sometimes spend the whole visiting period going from room to room to visit others. In some cases this has been a physical hardship on certain patients.

The new visiting hour regulations will confine the number of visitors to maternity patients to not more than two to a patient during any one visiting period.

The hours established for visiting during afternoons have been cut from 1 to 4 till 2 to 4 P. M. The regulations for patients in private rooms, where other patients will not be disturbed, have not been changed.

Report on Fair Reveals Profit

Directors Outline Plans for Future

The 13 directors of Fayette County's annual Fair were given a preliminary report on this year's big exposition at a special meeting Monday night and then discussed the prospects for another one "bigger and better" next year.

The highlight of the report came from the secretary, Frank E. Ellis. He told the directors that "the Fair made a nice profit", and then went on to explain that a detailed dollars and cents report could not be compiled for several weeks yet.

The report was given "off the record" but it did give the directors a fairly accurate picture of the outcome of the Agricultural Society's extravaganza.

Because the dollars and cents report was "off the record" it was not made public. The financial statement, it was explained, will be prepared as soon as possible for the State Department of Agriculture, which acts as a sort of overseer of all county fairs.

The directors agreed after the meeting that it "was strictly informal—one of the most informal held in months."

Primary Purposes

Its primary purpose were to review the Fair of two weeks ago and to draft a rough outline for next year's Fair.

"Not a resolution was passed; not one was even offered," was the way the secretary summed up the meeting.

There was no attempt by the directors to conceal their satisfaction over this year's Fair, however. They admitted they were pleased by both the size and quality of the exposition and by the secretary's assurance that there would be a "nice profit."

Among the subjects discussed informally were the lease on the Fairground and the rental (for 11 months each year) of the horse barns and buildings used for storage. These rentals, it was explained to the directors, provide an almost year-round source of revenue for the Agricultural Society. No conclusions were reached in any of the discussions which were "just in generalities."

Scout Troop 152 Plans Fishing Trip

Plans for an overnight fishing trip were completed during the regular meeting of Boy Scout Troop 152. The meeting was held Monday evening in the First Baptist Church.

The young fishermen plan to spend the night on Compton Creek next Friday night, and a number of the boys are getting their camping equipment together in preparation for the trip.

Next Monday evening the troop will meet at Gardner Park. If it rains the meeting will be moved indoors to the First Baptist Church again.

Nurses Association Is Seeking Blood Donors

Every effort is being made by the Professional Nurses Association of Fayette County to emphasize the need for more blood donors here when the Red Cross Blood Mobile Unit comes to Washington C. H., for another visit on August 22, at Legion Hall, from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M.

The plans made to recruit blood contributors are being directed toward many people, eligible as donors, who have given little thought to the importance of Fayette County reaching its quota of 100 pints on this trip.

This county has failed to meet its quota for some time. Blood so given makes free blood from the Red Cross available to the Fayette County Memorial Hospital here, when needed. In addition, it means help to those who require blood in many places.

The development of this program is one of the most important jobs ever undertaken by the Red Cross. Actually it is a three-way expansion; first to meet the needs of the armed forces for whole blood and for reserve supplies of plasma; then to meet civil defense needs for large quantities of blood products for stockpiling; and finally to help in the growing need of the civilian population for blood in the treatment of injury and disease.

Minor Accident Here In Downtown Section

A minor accident occurred on East Court Street about 1:50 P. M. Monday, when a truck driven by Charles R. Thornton, 36, of Rockbridge, struck a car driven by Donald E. Moore, 20, of Jeffersonville, driving a 1940 Pontiac four-door sedan. The accident occurred, according to city police reports, when Thornton attempted to pull from the left lane of traffic into another lane and did not get over far enough to avoid the collision.

Deputy's Car In Wreck Here

Life for a sheriff's deputy is never without its dangers.

This Roy C. Underwood found out about 7:15 P. M. Monday while responding to a call about a wreck three miles north of Bloomingburg.

Before he arrived at the scene of the wreck, Deputy Underwood was involved in a collision himself at the corner of North North Street and Market Street.

With siren and red light on, Deputy Underwood collided with a car driven by Georgia R. Aills, 17, of Washington C. H. Her car, a 1941 two-door Chevrolet, struck a parked car owned by Frank Mann.

The left fender and bumper of the Mann car was damaged, and the left headlight, fender and grill of the deputy's 1947 Chevrolet two-door car was damaged.

Miss Aills stated that she did not see the red light nor did she hear the siren on the car driven by Deputy Underwood.

City police checked the accident.

Stentor, a native of early Greece was said to have a voice as loud as that of 50 men. The word, "stentorian," derives from him.
